THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION	X1-HUM
CD NO. ### C
NO. OF PAGES 1 NO. OF ENCLS. SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THIS IS
NO. OF ENCLS. CUIRED NO. OF ENCLS. SUPPLEMENT TO REFORT NO. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION T
THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION The Kwangtung Covernment maintains six guest houses in Cunton for the accommodation of Communist functionaries. The names and locations of the establishments are as follows: First 2 Chief Yuan ([] []] Nancion, Plum Village, Tungshan. Second 1 Ming Te She ([] [] []] Nancion, Plum Village, Tungshan. Third 2 Victory Mansion, Shameen. Fourth 1 White House Hotel, T'eip'ing ([]] Road, Sixth 2 Ying Pin ([] []] Rotel, Yueh Hua ([] []] Road. Sixth 2 Ying Pin ([] []] Rotel, Yueh Hua ([] []] Road. 2. The first guest house is reserved for the use of senior Communist Party personnel, including officials of the central government and of the major administrative regions. The second and third guest houses are reserved for Soviet acvisers and technical personnel. The fourth guest house is primarily for special commissioners and county magistates. The fifth and sixth guest houses are for ordinary Communist Party personnel. 3. The purpose in establishing these guest houses was to provide quarters for Communist personnel in trunsit and awaiting the transaction of official business. Consumist cares who wish accommodations have to obtain a dowment from the government office in Centon with which they are doing business and present this document at the guest house. They are entitled to lodging without cost, but have to pay the guest house for their meals. Soviet officials are an exception, in that they are provided with free meals as well as lodging. h. The guest house arrangement has now been extended to all haien in Kwangtung.
This is unevaluated and a superior to the second and the superior of the second and the superior of the superior is the superior of the super	X1-HUM
THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION The Kwengtung Covernment maintains six guest houses in Conton for the accommodation of Communist functionaries. The names and locations of the establishments are as follows: First : Chieh Tuan () Nansion, Flum Village, Tungshan. Second : Ming Te She () Nansion, Flum Village, Tungshan. Third : Victory Mansion, Shameen. Fourth : White House Hotel, T'aip'ing () Road, South. Fifth : Kwangtung Hotel, Ts'ang Pien () Road. Sixth : Ting Pin () Hotel, Tuah Hua () Road. 2. The first guest house is reserved for the use of senior Communist Party personnel, including officials of the central government and of the major administrative regions. The second and third guest houses are reserved for Soviet advisers and technical personnel. The fourth guest house is primarily for special commissioners and county magastrates. The fifth and sixth grest houses are for ordinary Communist Party personnel. 3. The purpose in establishing these guest houses was to provide quarters for Communist personnel in transit and amaiting the transaction of official business. Communist coares who wish accommodations have to obtain a document from the government office in Canton with which they are entitled to lodging without cost, but have to pay the guest house for their meals. Soviet officials are an exception, in that they are provided with free meals as well as lodging.	, accomodation of Communist functionaries. The names and locations of the establishments are as follows: First : Chieh Tuan (意意) Mansion, Plum Village, Tungahan. Second : Ming Te She (用意社), Lower Nung Lin (意本) Road, Tungshan. Third : Victory Mansion, Shameen. Fourth : White House Hotel, T'aip'ing (太平) Road, South. Fifth : Kwangtung Hotel, Ts'ang Pien (意意) Road. Sixth : Ying Pin (记意) Hotel, Tueh Hua (竞章) Road. 2. The first guest house is reserved for the use of senior Communist Party personnel, including officials of the central government and of the major administrative regions. The second and third guest houses are reserved for Soviet advisers and technical personnel. The fourth guest house is primarily for special commissioners and county magistrates. The fifth and sixth great houses are for ordinary Communist Party personnel. 3. The purpose in establishing these guest house was to provide quarters for Communist personnel in transit and awaiting the transaction of official business. Communist cadres who wish accomodations have to obtain a document from the government office in Canton with which they are doing business and present this document at the guest house. They are entitled to lodging without cost, but have to pay the guest house for their meals. Soviet officials are an exception, in that they are provided with free meals as well as lodging. 14. The guest house arrangement has now been extended to all haien in Kwangtung.	OX1-HUM
Fourth: White House Hotel, T'aip'ing (大平) Road, South. Fifth: Kwangtung Hotel, Ts'ang Pien (定量) Road. Sixth: Ying Pin (迎電) Hotel, Yueh Hua (量量) Road. 2. The first guest house is reserved for the use of senior Communist Party personnel, including officials of the central government and of the major administrative regions. The second and third guest houses are reserved for Soviet advisers and technical personnel. The fourth guest house is primarily for special commissioners and county magistrates. The fifth and sixth grest houses are for ordinary Communist Party personnel. 3. The purpose in establishing these guest houses was to provide quarters for Communist personnel in transit and awaiting the transaction of official business. Communist cadres who wish accommodations have to obtain a document from the government office in Canton with which they are doing business and present this document at the guest house. They are entitled to lodging without cost, but have to pay the guest house for their meals. Soviet officials are an exception, in that they are provided with free meals as well as lodging. 4. The guest house arrangement has now been extended to all haien in Kwangtung.
Fifth: Kwangtung Hotel, Ts'ang Pien () Road. Sixth: Ying Pin () Hotel, Yueh Hua () Road. 2. The first guest house is reserved for the use of semior Communist Party personnel, including officials of the central government and of the major administrative regions. The second and third guest houses are reserved for Soviet advisers and technical personnel. The fourth guest house is primarily for special commissioners and county magistrates. The fifth and sixth great houses are for ordinary Communist Party personnel. 3. The purpose in establishing these guest houses was to provide quarters for Communist personnel in transit and awaiting the transaction of official business. Communist cadres who wish accommodations have to obtain a dolument from the government office in Canton with which they are doing business and present this document at the guest house. They are entitled to lodging without cost, but have to pay the guest house for their meals. Soviet officials are an exception, in that they are provided with free meals as well as lodging. 4. The guest house arrangement has now been extended to all haien in Kwangtung.
Sixth: Ying Pin (if [a]) Hotel, Yueh Hua ([a] ) Road. 2. The first guest house is reserved for the use of senior Communist Party personnel, including officials of the central government and of the major administrative regions. The second and third guest houses are reserved for Soviet advisers and technical personnel. The fourth guest house is primarily for special commissioners and county magistrates. The fifth and sixth great houses are for ordinary Communist Party personnel. 3. The purpose in establishing these guest houses was to provide quarters for Communist personnel in transit and awaiting the transaction of official business. Communist cadres who wish accommodations have to obtain a document from the government office in Canton with which they are doing business and present this document at the guest house. They are entitled to lodging without cost, but have to pay the guest house for their meals. Soviet officials are an exception, in that they are provided with free meals as well as lodging. 4. The guest house arrangement has now been extended to all hair in Kwangtung.
personnel, including officials of the central government and of the major administrative regions. The second and third guest houses are reserved for Soviet advisers and technical personnel. The fourth guest house is primarily for special commissioners and county magistrates. The fifth and sixth great houses are for ordinary Communist Party personnel. 3. The purpose in establishing these guest houses was to provide quarters for Communist personnel in transit and awaiting the transaction of official business. Communist cadres who wish accommodations have to obtain a document from the government office in Canton with which they are doing business and present this document at the guest house. They are entitled to lodging without cost, but have to pay the guest house for their meals. Soviet officials are an exception, in that they are provided with free meals as well as lodging. 4. The guest house arrangement has now been extended to all haien in Kwangtung.
Communist personnel in transit and awaiting the transaction of official business. Communist cadres who wish accommodations have to obtain a document from the government office in Canton with which they are doing business and present this document at the guest house. They are entitled to lodging without cost, but have to pay the guest house for their meals. Soviet officials are an exception, in that they are provided with free meals as well as lodging. 1. The guest house arrangement has now been extended to all haien in Kwangtung.
CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL 0.5 OFFICIAL CNLY	•
CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL 0.57 OFF CALL COLY
STATE , NAVY NSRB DISTRIBUTION ARMY AIR FBI
No Change in Class
Declaration -
50x	(1-HUM